

The Gray-Headed Coneflower

Ratibida Pinnata

BASIC INFORMATION

- 5 feet tall
- Blooms June to Sept.
- The middle is gray, browns with age

<https://www.google.com/url?sa=D&source=embed&u=https://www.ohio.gov/ohioaction/2015/06/23/gray-headed-coneflower-ratibida-pinnata/>

<https://www.google.com/search?q=gray-headed+coneflower+plant&rlz=C10XWL&rlzJS155&source=lnms&img&sch&sch&ved=0ahUKEw1C8h3D9g4kyM80jYKcc&uad=geopriv=EB3M71FY&M>

Where it Grows and how it Spreads

- Woodlands
- Prairies
- Road Sides

Family Members

- Black Eyed Susan
- Artichoke
- Woodland Sunflower
- Tickseed
- Pineapple Weed
- Common Tansy
- Golden Ragwort

What Eats It?

Woodchuck

<https://www.google.com/url?sa=D&source=embed&u=https://www.ohio.gov/ohioaction/2015/06/23/gray-headed-coneflower-ratibida-pinnata/>

Monarch Butterfly

<https://www.google.com/search?q=monarch+butterfly+on+gray-headed+coneflower&rlz=C10XWL&rlzJS155&source=lnms&img&sch&sch&ved=0ahUKEw1C8h3D9g4kyM80jYKcc&uad=geopriv=EB3M71FY&M>

Benefits

- Tea
- Colds
- Headaches
- Sores

Pests

No Pests!

2019 Brookville Biodiversity Project GrayHeaded Coneflower. By: JS and KW, Funded by Ohio Environmental Education Fund

powered by